

Jordan Poulas

Surgeon Ophthalmologist, specialized in Cataract and Refractive surgery

M.D., F.E.B.O., (Fellow of European Board of Ophthalmology)

STUDIES

1978: Medical School of Aristotelion University of Thessaloniki, Greece.

1988: Received the title of Doctor of Medicine after presenting his thesis on Complication of Intraocular Hemorrhage.

1989: Participation in Radial Keratotomy course for the correction of Myopia and Astigmatism, in Fyodorov Eye Institute, in Moscow.

1996: Combined Cataract and Glaucoma surgery, video presentation in the ESCRS
Meeting in Gotteborg, Sweden.

WORKING EXPERIENCE

1981-1983: Resident in the University Ophthalmologic Clinic of Thessaloniki.

1984-1988: Fellowship in the University Ophthalmologic Clinic of Thessaloniki.

1985-1991: Affiliated eye surgeon in a private Clinic in Thessaloniki

1988-2002: Affiliated eye surgeon in General Clinic Sarafianos in Thessaloniki.

1991: Fellowship in Phacoemulsification Cataract surgery and in Glaucoma surgery in the Cincinnati Eye Institute, Cincinnati - USA

1999 & 2000: Invited for Live Cataract surgery in Lisbon of Portugal.

2000: Invited for Live Cataract and Glaucoma surgery in the University Eye Clinic of Izmir in Turkey.

2000: Fellowship in LASIK surgery for the correction of Myopia, Hyperopia and Astigmatism in Heraklion of Crete, with prof. Ioannis Pallikaris.

CERTIFICATION & MEMBERSHIPS

1984: Certified Board Ophthalmologist

1996-2000: Secretary General of the Ophthalmological Society of Northern Greece.

2000: Elected President of the Ophthalmological Society of Northern Greece.

2002: Award of the European Diploma of Ophthalmology.

PRESENTATIONS

1999: Presentation of a modified Glaucoma surgery procedure in the American Society Of Cataract and Refractive Surgery in Seattle, USA.

2001: Invited speaker in the European Congress in Istanbul of Turkey.

SPOKEN LANGUAGES

English, Turkish, French, Russian, Greek