

Dr FOTIOS GKOUTZIOULIS
OBSTETRICIAN - GYNAECOLOGICAL SURGEON

The obstetrician and gynaecological surgeon, Dr Fotios Gkoutzioulis, using reliable and modern scientific methods, he aims to provide complete and accurate information to his clients as well as ensure the prevention, early diagnosis and proper management of any obstetric/gynaecological issues. Dr Fotios Gkoutzioulis specialises in infertility issues, assisted reproduction and endoscopic surgery.

- The obstetrician and gynaecological surgeon, Dr Fotios Gkoutzioulis, graduated from Medical School at the University of Ioannina in 1987.
- He specialised in General Surgery for 18 months and after that in Obstetrics and Gynaecology for 4 years. He received the title of OBSTETRICIAN - GYNAECOLOGICAL SURGEON on 1996. Then he served as a scientific associate of the University Clinic of Obstetrics.
- Since 1996 to 2000 Dr. F. Gkoutzioulis worked and gained significant clinical experience in UK hospitals, where he was also trained in IVF, and later in laparoscopic surgery at Leuven University Center in Belgium. He holds a PhD from Medical School in Aristotle University of Thessaloniki in the field of polycystic ovaries.
- Since 2001 he has been an associate to the European Interbalkan Medical Center, where he was also the head of Outpatients Clinic and the department of Gynecological Ultrasounds, since 2004 and until 2010.
- He has been working in The IVF and Infertility Centre as a specialist in infertility issues, assisted reproduction and endoscopic surgery (operative laparoscopy and hysteroscopy) since 2002. Systematically deals with the treatment of infertility and IVF. He also deals with laparoscopic treatment of infertility and other gynecological disorders (treatment of endometriosis, uterine fibroids, laparoscopic hysterectomy) as well as, diagnostic and interventional hysteroscopy.
- He has published scientific papers in foreign and Greek medical journals and has participated in many international and Greek scientific conferences.

Education

- 2009: Doctorate in Medicine, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki
- 2000: Studies in laparoscopic surgery at University Hospital of Leuven, Belgium
- 1999: Studies in assisted reproduction at the IVF center of Priory Hospital Great Britain.
- 1997: State-recognized certification for ultrasound in obstetrics gynecology.
- 1996: Obstetrician Gynecology Specialty
- 1991 – 1995: Training in Obstetrics in General Hospital of Xanthi and at the Obstetrics and Gynecology Clinic of Hippocraton, University Hospital of Thessaloniki. 1989– 1990: Studies in General Surgery in Alexandroupoli hospital.
- 1980 – 1987: Studies in Medical School, University of Ioannina Greece

Special clinical interests:

- Infertility and all methods of assisted reproduction
- Laparoscopic treatment of gynecological diseases (endometriosis, excision of fibroids, laparoscopic hysterectomy),
- Invasive hysteroscopy
- Office Hysteroscopy in the office without anesthesia,
- Management of high risk pregnancies and
- Normal birth after caesarean section (VBAC)

Membership

- Member of European Society for Human Reproduction and Embryology (ESHRE)
- Member of American Society for Reproductive Medicine (ASRM)
- Active member of the Thessaloniki Medical Diabetic Center Fertility and IVF team since 2002